

I am extremely unhappy and angry that Sinclair broadcasting is using federal air waves to broadcast a biased news event on the eve of a sensitive, closely fought election. Ever since Reagan rescinded the fairness policy our national news conglomerates have become nothing more than propaganda. This is an abuse of the original intent of public airwaves and should not be tolerated. I want to urge the FCC not to renew Sinclair's licenses and will fight its local affiliate.

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

How can the FCC encourage more media consolidation? Mike Powell must have a job lined up at Fox after he retires as FCC chair.
